

Engineering Change Notice!

Smart KB-100

Genius Smart KB-100 wired keyboard will add frequently used multimedia functions on its FN keys in coming season. And, it also change the key of Genius website to Calculator key. These changes will be easier to access audio playback and Internet.

The package will be renewed and easier to identify the model name, and the part numbers of UPC code and EAN code will be kept same to avoid the bar code register again. Contact your local sales representative to learn more.
